816.l.5
15.
4

At a SESSION of the Commiſſioners of Sewers, Pavements, &c. London, held at Guildhall, on Friday, the Day of 174

THIS Court taking into Conſideration, the Badneſs of the Foot-ways in the narrow Streets of this City and Liberties thereof; more eſpecially of ſuch of them as will not admit of Poſts to be ſet up, have Reſolved and Ordered; and this Court doth Reſolve and Order, that all the Pavements of the ſaid narrow Streets which ſhall hereafter be new paved or repaired, ſhall be paved or repaired with Purbeck Squares, or large broad flat Pebbles, two Foot in the Street, from the Curbs of the Cellar Windows, or Spurs or Steps of the Houſes; and this Court doth further Order, That all Perſons who ſhall ſet the Paviors on Work, as well as the Paviors themſelves, do take care to conform to this Order, as they will Anſwer the contrary at their Peril.

JOHN SMITH, Clerk.